THE TRIBUNE, FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 24.

A LETTER FROM HENRY A. WISE.
WASHINGTON, June, 1840.
GESTLEMES:—I have delayed answering yours of the fold laser its kind invitation to attend the dinner in honor of Mr. Clay by the citizens of his native county, at Taylorsville, on the 27th inst. and has acquired what neither friends nor foes can take from him-" a fame for which himself has fought, and from which no man's censure can detract." And that fame is his reward. Office could not add a cubit to his stature. He has effected honor on the place of his birth, and a Henry was born there before him; he has mainnined the reputation of Virginia's sons, and Virginia is the mother of "heroes, statesmen, and ages." That is enough for any one man, and it senough for you to claim him as your own—you honor yourselves in honoring Henry Clay. can impeach his disinterestedness now, and I wish that all Virginia, all America, could see him, as you will see him, and hear him as you will hear -a teacher, an experienced teacher, of eternal olitical truths, and a witness of facts for freedom sgainst freedom's foes. Heed him, I beserch you, H. A. WISE. ed him whilst you may!

Navat .- The Norfolk (Va.) Herald says, that he U.S. frigate Macedonian and the sloop of war Warren anchored off the Naval Hospital at that port on the 18th. It says further, that there are ow seven ships of war anchored in a line extending about a mile down the river from the Hospital Point, and they present quite a formidable appearasse, such indeed, as was never before seen in that harbor. First rides the French corvette Bison, Capt. Aguillecourt, of 20 guns; 2d, the U.S. corvette Cyane, Commander Stribbling, of 20 guns; 3d, the Macedonian, Com. Wilkinson, a warm 44; 4th, the majestic Pennsylvania, Com. Shubrick, a mammoth three decker of 120 guns; 5th, the U. S. sloop-of-war Warren, Commander Jameson, 20; 6th, the French frigate Armide, Capt. Louvet, flug ship of Admiral Arnous, of 36 guns; 7th and lastly, the French corvette L'Aurier, Capt. Garnier, of 16 guns. Total 276 guns.

ASOTHER METHODIST COLLEGE .- At the conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church recently held at Urbana, Ohio, measures were adopted for the purchase of the White Sulshur Springs property, at Delaware, in that State, as the site for the location of a College, to be under the patronage and for the benefit of the North Ohio and the Ohio Conferences jointly.

ESGLISH ELECTIVE FRANCHISE.-The Westminster Review contains the number of the English Constituency for the various parts of Great The number of electors in proportion to the population and to the representatives, is much greater, we imagine, than is generally supposed, and shows that the most substantial part of the people of England really control the government.

The number of cheeters is a full number of electors is as follows:

In England, then, the umber of electors is one-half as numerous as in United States, where suffrage is nearly universal; but in Ireland the disproportion between and the electors is very numerous. Perhaps this is caused by the greater number of persons who have a property qualification in England than in Ireland, and thus, in reality, denotes a better condition of the people in England han in Ireland.
